

Linda B. Klain

Indianapolis, Indiana

- Attorney
- Contract Administrative Law Judge, Indiana Department of Education

Travel: Limited

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Contract Issues
- Administrative Law
- Property Issues
- Commercial and Business Litigation

Additional Information:

Linda B. Klain is a contracted Administrative Law Judge for the Indiana State Department of Education and formerly Department of Health for a number of years. In addition, Linda sits as judge pro tempore in several township small claims courts in Indianapolis deciding a wide variety of disputes. Judge Klain has a B.S. from George Washington University and An M.B.A from Kelley School of Business as well as a J.D. from McKinney School of Law. She also is a licensed real estate broker and has a private downtown practice specializing in business and real estate litigation and criminal defense. She has served on the Grievance Committee for the Metropolitan Board of Realtors (MIBOR) and coached law students in the field of mediation. She has received additional training in the area of negotiations.

Originally from the East Coast, Judge Klain is one of the founders of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary in Indiana and has served as VP of that organization. She volunteers as a mediator for Shared Neutrals on a regular basis. She also consults on various business matters in the tech start up community and is actively engaged in a variety of civic activities in Indianapolis. She is head of Strategic Planning for the American Cancer Society, Indianapolis. She has owned and operated a construction business and is well versed in matters of construction litigation and contracts and has been actively serving others with legal advice (pro bono and otherwise) for over 20 years.